SBE Inc. announces the appointment of Future Electronics as Worldwide Distributor

September 30, 2008, Barre, VT – For immediate release

SBE Inc. announced today it has signed a Worldwide Authorized Distribution agreement with Future Electronics, one of prominent distributors of Electrical and Electronic components in the world.

Under the terms of the agreement, all of SBE Inc Standard Products will be available through Future's vast distribution network including "in plant" stores where available and at their online "Component Super Store".

Customized products may also be available through this agreement. Interested parties should contact their local Future Electronics Sales/Account Management representative for inquiries or contact SBE Inc directly at info@sbelectronics.com or at 1-802-476-4146.

"SBE is pleased to make this convenient product acquisition channel available to its customers" stated Ed Sawyer, SBE Inc President & CEO. "Larger customers will benefit from the addition of the complete line of SBE products to their existing distribution channel, and smaller customers will gain access to on line ordering and more suitable small quantity purchasing options".

Orders may be placed immediately and delivery will be available from stock or with the SBE legendary and reliable short lead times

SBE Inc. is a growing company supplying capacitor technology to a variety of industries and leading edge companies around the world.

Future Electronics is one of the world's largest Electrical and Electronics parts distributors. They are headquartered in Montreal, Quebec, Canada. More information can be obtained at their website: www.futureelectronics.com.
